

Michael Erwin Branch M.D.

Education

Bachelor of Arts Psychology and English, Henderson State University
M.D. Bowman Gray School of Medicine, Wake Forest University

Professional Experience

Dr. Branch is currently the Staff Otolaryngologist (ear and throat specialist) at The Villages Hospital in Leesburg, Florida. In the past he has held various positions across the state of Florida including:

Locum Tenens
Otolaryngology, Trauma Team
Central Florida Regional Hospital
June 5, 2015-January 31, 2016

Central Florida Ear, Nose & Throat Specialists, PA
1999-January 31, 2016

Florida Hospital Fish Memorial Staff Physician
March 7, 2012-May 6, 2015)

The Ear, Nose & Throat Surgical Associates
1996-1999

In addition to serving in civilian hospitals, Dr. Branch also served in the U.S. military from 1973 to 1996, finishing as a Lieutenant Commander in the U.S. Naval Reserve.

Personal Information

Dr. Branch has also been a part of many philanthropic medical activities including trips to Pucallpa, Peru and Tegucigalpa, Honduras. He also serves as a Medical Advisor on the board of United Servants Abroad.

Dr. Branch and his wife, Patricia have three children, Emma, Anna, and Benjamin.