

Aaron Chen
Founder & CEO
Alpha Omega Technologies

Business Experience

Aaron has over 15+ years of experience in Strategic IT, as well as IT functional management, and service management (ITIL). He has also worked in strategic infrastructure and services planning (Saas, wireless networking, security), project management and business analysis. Aaron also specializes in change management, Business Process Optimization, and implementation of effective business technology solutions.

During his years as a Computer Engineer student, Aaron worked at several high technology companies such as: Intel, Yahoo, and Applied Materials. It was during this time he gained most of his technical expertise from data-warehousing, semi-conductor, and internet technology. Aaron then worked for KPMG in Singapore as a consultant to several Fortune 500 companies in South East Asia, focusing on automation and quality control. He returned to the United States to work for Merrill Lynch International (1999-2001) as a financial advisor and Vice President of Technology.

After receiving his MBA, Aaron founded Alpha Omega Technology where he still serves as the CEO. He has also started many other companies and sold some of them. His company has received numerous awards such as: Best Minority Owned Company in California 2011. It ranked #42 on the 2014 Top 100 California State Fastest Growing Companies List by Puget Sound Business Journal. It was also named to CRN Fast Growth 100 List.

Aaron also served as Vice President of Business Development for Asia Pacific Business Chambers of Commerce. In his latest venture, Aaron co-founded medical/pharmaceutical research and trial company. This company will help doctors, pharmaceuticals, and researchers find matching patients and grants for clinical trials.

Personal

Aaron grew up in Indonesia as Chinese-Indonesian. He immigrated to the United States to pursue higher education. Aaron has served with many non-profit organizations, and used his passions for business, investing, finance, and teaching to mentor young entrepreneurs and help business leaders succeed. Aaron enjoys many sports, such as badminton, fishing, and bowling. He also has a passion for photography, playing and singing music. Aaron also served in the United States Marine Corps for over 10 years reaching the rank of 1st Lieutenant.

Education & Certifications

Bachelors of Science, Computer Engineering,

San Jose State University, San Jose, California (1997)

Master of Business Administration, Business Entrepreneurship,

University of Southern California, Los Angeles, California (2002)